

Children's Day 2015

On 20th November 2015, Children's day was observed at MVJ MC & RH Hospital. Students from MVJ College of nursing conducted Health Education Programme on Prevention and management of Dengue fever by using charts and LCD to the parents and children's. Students performed Role play regarding signs and symptoms Dengue fever. They also explained to the parents about taking care of a child with fever. They also organized drawing competitions, and various other games along with play therapy. Nursing Superintendent of MVJ MC & RH and Principal of MVJCON distributed sweets to children.

